(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the record-of-rights or in any law or anything having the force of law in the Santal Parganas, the landlord shall allow the registration of such transfer, and shall not be entitled, except in the case of transfer by sale, gift or will, to levy any registration fee and in the case of a transfer by sale, gift or will, the landlord shall be entitled to levy such registration fee as may be prescribed.

(3) If any landlord refuses to allow the registration of any such transfer as is mentioned in sub-section (1) the transferee or his successor-in-interest may apply to the Deputy Commissioner and the Deputy Commissioner shall after causing notice to be served on the landlord make such enquiry as he considers necessary and shall, if he is satisfied that the transfer is not contrary to custom or the record-of-rights, pass an order declaring that the transfer shall be deemed to be registered, and may also pass such order as he thinks fit in respect of the costs of any such enquiry.}

25. Payment of landlord's registration fee, etc. compulsory at the time of the registration of a deed of gift or sale of a raiyati holding or a portion thereof.-

(1) A registration officer shall not register any instruments purporting or operating to transfer a raiyati holding or portion of a raiyati holding by sale or gift unless there is paid to him, in addition to any fees payable under the Act for the time being in force for the registration of documents, a process fee of the prescribed amount and the landlord's registration fee payable under sub-section (2) of the section 24 together with the costs necessary for the transmission of the registration fee to the landlord.

(2) When the registration of any such instrument is complete, the registering officer shall send to the Deputy Commissioner the registration fee and the costs necessary for the transmission of the same to the landlord and a notice of the transfer and registration in the prescribed form, and the Deputy Commissioner shall cause the fee to be transmitted to, and the notice to be served on, landlord named in the notice in the prescribed manner.

26. Effect of registration- On registration of a transfer under sub-section (2), or on the passing of an order for registration by the Deputy Commissioner under sub-section (5) of Section 24, the landlord shall be deemed to have consented to the transfer and shall be bound by the terms and conditions thereof.

CHAPTER VI

27. Settlement of waste land to be made by patta in prescribed form- Settlement of waste land shall be made by a patta or amalnama in the prescribed form. The patta or amalnama shall be prepared in quadruplicate, one copy shall be given to the raiyat concerned, one copy shall be sent to the Deputy Commissioner, one copy shall be sent to the landlord and the fourth shall be retained by the village headman or mulraiyyat, as the case may be.

Sections 27,28,59 and 61- Settlement of Waste land.- order passed by Sub-Divisional Officer in favour of non-jamabandi raiyat, after following procedure prescribed thereof in Section 27 and 28. Settlement of Waste land in favour of non –jamabandi raiyat is not against law. Cancellation of settlement by Revisional and Appellate Authority amount to failure to justice. The provisions are not mandatory under the Act. {Mihir kumar jha v. State of Bihar, 1997 (1) BLJR 172: 1997 (1) PLJR 716: 1997 BBCJ 364}.

Section 27 and 29-Mulraiyyat and village pradhan are similar words- Village headman also same category- Mulraiyyat can retain raiyati lands, patta of land cancelled. Because petitioner was grandson of village pradhan. Held- Cancellation is invalid as petitioner was not retaining any raiyat.- The word mulraiyyat is synonymous with the word “Village Pradhan” or “village headmand” and only difference is that mulraiyyat are entitled to retain their rayati lands. There was no material before Divisional Commissioner to hold that the petitioner was in any way retaining any raiyati land in the capacity of mulraiyyat or in capacity or co-mulraiyyat of the village and merely because the petitioner happened to be Bhagina (Sister’s son) of the village pradhanm he could not have been categorised a co-mulraiyyat attracting the provisions of Section 29 of the Act. {Gadahar Mandal v. state of Bihar,2000 (2) BLJ 784: 2000 (3) PLJR 756 (Pat)}.

28. Principles to be followed in settling waste land or vacant holding- In making settlement of waste land or vacant holdings regard shall be had to the following considerations in additions to the principles recorded in the record-or-rights,

- (a) Fair and equitable distribution of land according to the requirements of each raiyat and his capacity to reclaim and cultivate;
- (b) any special claim for services rendered to the village community, society or State:

(c) contiguity or proximity of the waste land to jamabandi land of the raiyat;

(d) Provision for landless labourers who are bona fide permanent residents of the village and are recorded for a dwelling house in the village.

29. A mulraiyat, Pradhan or village headman not to settle waste land or vacant holding with himself or co-mulraiyat without the sanction of the Deputy Commissioner.- A mulraiyat, pradhan or village headman shall not settle any waste land or vacant holding with himself or any co-mulraiyat without the previous sanction in writing of the Deputy Commissioner.

30. Vacant holding not to be sub-divided for purpose of settlement- No vacant holding shall be sub-divided for the purpose of settlement without the consent of the landlord and the approval of the Deputy commissioner.

35. Water reservoirs and channels for irrigation, etc. not be cultivated or converted to other purposes.- (1) Bandhas, aharas, tanks and other water reservoirs or channels, which are used either for the purposes of protection from flood or for irrigation, bathing, washing or drinking, shall not be settled for or converted to any other purpose without the consent of the raiyats and the village headman or mulraiyyat, or the landlord in khas village, and the approval of the Deputy Commissioner. No one shall bring under cultivation any such water reservoir or channel.

(2) No proprietor or landlord shall be entitled to levy any charge for the use of water reservoirs and channels mentioned in sub-section (1) for irrigation, bathing, washing or drinking purposes.

36. Rivulets or nalas on the boundaries of villages, burning and burial grounds, camping grounds, boundary marks, roads, paths and places of worship not to be settled. – Rivulets or nalas on the boundaries of village, burning and burial grounds, camping grounds, land bearing boundary marks, public roads, village paths, jaherthan and other places of worship shall not be reclaimed or cultivated or converted to any other purpose by any raiyat. No proprietor, landlord, village headman or muraiyat shall appropriate these to their own use, nor shall they settle these with any raiyat.

37. Raiyat's right to graze cattle- All raiyats of the villages shall have the right to graze their own cattle within the village on the recorded grazing land and on grazing land set apart by the Deputy Commissioner under sub-section

(2) of Section 38 and on village waste land which is neither excluded from the village under the santal parganas settlement Regulation (Reg.III of 1872) nor reserved or enclosed to promote growth of forest nor set apart under section 34:

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the right of reclamation of waste land after due settlement:

Provided further that the right of grazing cattle shall be subject to such forest rules as may for the time being be in force for the Domin-I Koh Government Estate or other private forests taken under the management of Government.

(2) No cattle of persons other than raiyats of the village may graze within the village without the consent of the village community.

(3) No fee shall be chargeable by any person for the grazing of cattle within any village.

38. Grazing land shall not be cultivated. – (1) No land recorded as village grazing land or gochar shall be settled or brought under cultivation or utilised for any other than grazing by any one.

(2) If the area recorded as grazing land or gochar be less than five per centum of the total area of the village headman or mulraiayat, and raiyats, set apart suitable area of village waste land for grazing. Such land when so set apart shall be governed by the provision of sub-section (1).

39. Raiyat's right to excavate tanks, etc., other than their holdings.-

Raiyats may, with the permission of the landlord, excavate on lands other than their holdings, tanks and other reservoirs required for drinking and other purposes, and may enjoy the fish and other produce of the same according to arrangement made with the landlord Provided that such permission shall not be refused by the landlord without sufficient reason and on such refusal the Deputy Commissioner may, on the application of the raiyat, grant such permission on such conditions as he deems fit.

40. Right of fishery in a khas tank not to interfere with raiyat's rights.-

Where any person is in enjoyment of the right of fishery in a khas tank or other water reservoir, the extent and nature of his right will depend on the terms of the lease under which he holds, But neither he nor the landlord shall interfere with any right irrigation that may be acquired by any person.

41. No settlements of vacant holding and waste land in a Paharia village with a non-Paharia.- No vacant holding and no waste land in a Paharia village within the Damin-i-KO Government Estate shall be settled with a person who is not a Paharia.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this section Paharia village is one which is recorded, recognised or declared as such by the Commissioner.

42. Ejectment of a person in unauthorised possession of agricultural land.

– The Deputy Commissioner may at any time either of his own motion or on an application made to him pass an order for ejectment of any person who has encroached upon, reclaimed, acquired or come into possession of agricultural land in contravention of the Provisions of this Act or any law or anything having the force of law in the Santal Parganas.

43. Rent in the kind not to be realised or recognised by any Court. –(1)

Nothing in contract, express or implied, between a landlord, a village headman or a mulraiyyat and a raiyat made before or after the commencement of this Act, shall entitle the landlord or the village headman or the mulraiyyat to rent in kind whether known as bhaoli, batai, krisani, danabandi or otherwise.

(2) No rent in kind shall, in any way, be recognised as valid by any Court whether in the exercise of civil, criminal or revenue jurisdiction:

Provided that if the Deputy Commissioner directs that a holding given in khas possession to a decree-holder for satisfaction of decree under the provision of the Santal Civil Rules be made over for cultivation to the evicted raiyat or his heirs, the decree-holder shall be entitled to take not more than half the produce as his share by division.

1[43-A., Time for payment of rent.-(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Santal Paraganas Settlement Regulation, 1872 (Reg.III of 1872) or the village record- of-rights prepared there under, a money rent payable by a tenant shall be paid in four equal instalments falling due on the last day of each quarter of the agricultural year.

(2) Every tenant or the mortgagee of his holding or tenure shall pay each instalment of rent before sunset of the day on which it falls due.

(3) Any instalment or part of an instalment of rent not duly paid at or before the time when it falls due shall be deemed to be an arrear:

Provided that where rent is payable to the State Government, any instalment or part of an instalment not duly paid at or before the time when it falls due shall be deemed to be an arrear only at the end of the agricultural year.

44. Raiyat, village headman and mulraiyyat not liable to transferee of landlord's or mulraiyyat's interest for rent paid to former landlord or mulraiyyat, without notice of the transfer.- (1) When the interest of the landlord or mulraiyyat is transferred, no raiyat, village headman or mulraiyyat, as the case may be, shall be liable for rent which became due after the transfer and was paid in good faith to the landlord or mulraiyyat, as the case may be, whose interest was so transferred unless the transferee has before the payment served notice of the transfer on the raiyat, village headman or mulraiyyat.

(2) Where there is more than one raiyat, village headman or mulraiyyat paying rent to the landlord or mulraiyyat, as the case may be, whose interest is transferred, a general notice from the transferee to the raiyats, village headmen or mulraiyyats, published in the prescribed manner, shall be a sufficient notice for the purpose of this section.

45. Payment of rent by postal money order. – Payment of rent by a raiyat to his landlord, village headman or mulraiyyat, as the case may be, in respect of his holding in any village may be made by remitting the amount of the rent by postal money order in the prescribed form. A village headman or a mulraiyyat may be like money-order remit the amount of rent due from him to his landlord.

46. Maintenance of account of rent of each raiyat by village headman, mulraiyyat or landlord.-(1) A village haddman or a mulraiyyat in a pradhani or mulraiya village, land a landlord in a khas village, shall maintain a statement of account in the prescribed form for each village showing the rent due, payments made by each raiyat

During each agricultural year, the manner in which such payments have been credited in the accounts, the balance, if any, remaining unpaid by such raiyat at the end of the said year and the interest claimed thereon.

47. Receipts for rent and interest thereon.-(1) Every raiyat, village headman or mulraiya who makes a payment on account of rent, or interest due thereon, or both, to his landlord, village headman or mulraiya, as the case may be, shall be entitled to obtain forthwith from the landlord or his agent, village headman, or mulraiya, as the case may be, free of charge, a signed receipt for the same, in the prescribed form.

(2) The landlord or his agent or the village headman, or mulraiya, as the case may be, shall prepare and retain a counter-foil, in the prescribed form, of the receipt.

(3) If a receipt does not contain substantially such of the particulars to be entered in the prescribed form of receipt as can be specified by the rent-receiver at the time of payment, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be an acquittance in full of all demands for rent and interest thereon up to the date on which the receipt was given.

(4) If any landlord or his agent, village headman, or mulraiya fails to grant such a receipt or to prepare and retain such a counterfoil or to maintain and deliver to a raiyat, a statement of account as prescribed in Section 46 then on proof thereof, the Deputy Commissioner may, in summary proceeding, by order, impose on the landlord, village headman, or mulraiya, as the case may be, a fine which may extend to fifty rupees in respect of each such failure; and may, in his discretion, award to the raiyat or village headman or mulraiya, as the case may be, by way of compensation, such portion of the fine as the Deputy Commissioner may think fit.

(5) If, in a proceeding instituted under sub-section (4), the Deputy Commissioner discharges any landlord, village headman or mulraiya and is satisfied that the complaint or allegation of the raiyat, village headman or mulraiya on which the proceedings were instituted is false or vexatious, the Deputy Commissioner may, in his discretion by his order of discharge, direct the raiyat, village headman or mulraiya, as the case may be, to pay to the village headman or mulraiya or landlord, as the case may be, such compensation, not exceeding fifty rupees, as the Deputy Commissioner may think fit.

(6) An appeal shall lie to the Commissioner against any order of the Deputy Commissioner imposing a fine under sub-section (4) or Awarding compensation under sub-section (4) or sub-section (5); and the order passed by the Commissioner on such appeal shall be final.

(7) Any fine imposed or compensation awarded under this section may be recovered in the manner provided by any law for the time being in force for the recovery of public demand.

(8) For the purpose of an enquiry under this section, the Deputy Commissioner shall have power to summon, and enforce the attendance of, witnesses, and compel the production of documents in the same manner as is provided in the Santal Civil Rules.

(9) If, in any suit or other proceeding under this Act any other law in force, the Court or Presiding Officer (not being the Deputy Commissioner) finds that any landlord or his agent, village headman, or mulraiyyat, has failed-

(a) to deliver to a raiyyat, village headman or mulraiyyat a receipt in the prescribed form, or

(b) to prepare and retain a counterfoil, in the prescribed form, of a receipt delivered to a raiyyat, village headman or mulraiyyat as aforesaid, or

(c) to maintain and deliver to a raiyyat or village headman, as the case may be, a statement of account as prescribed in Section 46,

Such Court or Officer shall report the fact to the Deputy Commissioner.

48. State Government to prepare forms of receipts and statement of accounts.-(1) The 1[State] Government shall cause to be prepared and kept for sale to village headman, mulraiyyat and landlords at all sub-divisional offices forms of receipts with counterfoils and of statements of accounts suitable for use under the foregoing sections.

(2) The forms may be sold in books with the leaves consecutively numbered or otherwise as the 2[State] Government thinks fit.

49. Rent to be first charge on holdings.- Where a raiyyat's holding is transferable, the rent of the holding shall be a first charge on the holding and, in the case of a village headman or mulraiyyat, the village rent shall be first charge on the holding of the village headman or mulraiyyat pledged as security for payment of such rent:

Provided that, if a holding or a portion thereof is sold in execution of a decree for arrears of rent, the purchaser shall acquire the holding free of all liability for rent for any period prior to the date of the sale, and rent due for any such period shall be a first charge on the sale proceeds of the holding or portion thereof.

50. Reduction of rent for special reasons.- (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law or anything having the force of law in the Santal Parganas, the Deputy Commissioner may, if specially authorised by the ¹[State] Government in that behalf, reduce by order in writing the rent of holdings of recorded raiyats in any area or village or of any class of land belonging to such raiyats, which has been settled by the Settlement Officer under the provisions of the Santal Parganas Settlement Regulation or which is entered in the rent-roll, as the case may be, on any one or more of the following grounds,-

(a) that the soil of a portion or the whole of such holdings of area has without the faults of the raiyats become permanently deteriorated by a deposit of sand by sub-mersion under water or by any other specific ground, sudden or gradual;

(b) that the landlord of such holdings or area has failed in spite of due notice to carry out within a period of six months from the date of service of notice the arrangements in respect of irrigation which he is bound to maintain;

(c) that there has been a fall not due to temporary cause in the average local Prices of staple food crops during the currency of the present rent.

Explanation.-(1) The expression “permanently deteriorated “in clause (a) means deteriorated for a period of seven years or more, such period being determined by the Deputy Commissioner.

(2) in the case referred to in clause (a) the reduced rent shall bear to the previous rent the same proportion as the current prices bear to the prices prevailing at the time when the previous rent first became payable.

(2) No proceeding under sub-section (1) shall be initiated on applications made by raiyat individually; but the initiative may be taken by the Deputy Commissioner himself if he is satisfied after due enquiry and after hearing all interested persons that there are sufficient grounds for such action.

(3) No proceedings under sub-section (1) shall be initiated until after the expiry of a period of seven years from the date on which the rent settled under the Santal Parganas Settlement Regulation, or the rent specified in a rent-roll published under the Santhal Parganas Rent Regulation, 1886, took effect.

(4) An order of the Deputy Commissioner under this section shall take effect from such date as may be specified in that order.

(5) The powers conferred on the Deputy Commissioner under this section shall be exercised in accordance with the prescribed procedure.

51. Duration of reduction of rent.-Where rent has been reduced under Section 50, no further reduction of rent shall be granted on the same ground until a fresh record-of-rights is prepared under the Santal Parganas Settlement Regulation, or until fresh table of rates and rent-roll are published under Santal Parganas Rent Regulation, 1886.

52. Penalty for exaction by landlord, etc., from tenant of anything in excess of the rent payable.- (1) If a landlord or his agent exacts or levies from a raiyat, village headman, or mulraiyyat under such landlord, or if a village headman or mulraiyyat exacts or levies from a raiyat under such village headman or mulraiyyat, any toll, abwab, salami, Kayali, or forced labour or, except as provided in this Act or any special enactment for the time being in force, any sum of money or anything in excess of the rent or local cess lawfully payable by such raiyat, village headman or mulraiyyat and the interest payable on an arrear of such rent or cess, such landlord or his agent, or village headman, or mulraiyyat, as the case may be, shall be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine, which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

(2) An offence under sub-section (1) shall be bailable, and shall be compoundable with the leave of the Court.

CHAPTER VI

ACQUISITION OF LAND BY LANDLORD FOR CERTAIN PURPOSES

53. Acquisition of land by landlord for building and other purposes- (1) (a) The landlord of village who is desirous of acquiring the holding or part of the holding or any land over which the inhabitants of such village have any common right for any reasonable and sufficient purpose having relation to the good of the holding, village or estate, or for the erection of buildings or for any religious, educational or charitable purpose; or for the purposes of mining, manufacture or irrigation, or effecting any agricultural or horticultural improvement or giving effect to any national policy of the Government may apply to the Deputy Commissioner for sanction to acquire the same.

(b) The Deputy Commissioner may, on the application of a village headman, mulraiyyat or raiyyat of the village or of his own motion, sanction acquisition proceedings to be started with respect to such land as is referred to in clause (a), if he is satisfied after due enquiry that the acquisition is to be made for any of the purposes specified in the said clause.

(c) On receipt of such application as is referred to in clauses (a) and (b), the Deputy Commissioner shall scrutinise it with a view to see that it satisfies the conditions of acquisition prescribed by the 1[State] Government in this behalf. If on such scrutiny of Deputy Commissioner considers the application to be not maintainable on the face of it, he may reject the application summarily.

(2) If the application is not rejected summarily under clause © of sub-section (1), the Deputy Commissioner shall issue notice to the raiyyats and other persons interested to appear before him and to file objections, if any. If after due enquiry the Deputy Commissioner is satisfied that the purpose stated in the application is as specified in clause (a) of sub-section (1) and that the objection, if any taken to the application are such that they may fairly be disregarded, the Deputy Commissioner may by order sanction acquisition proceedings to be started.

(3) On the passing of an order under sub-section (2), the Deputy Commissioner shall, after issuing notice to the raiyyats and other persons interested, decide claims and objections as to compensation, and may authorise the landlord, village headman, mulraiyyat or raiyyat, as the case may be, to take possession of the land on such terms and on payment to the raiyyat whose land is acquired or other persons interested of such compensation as he thinks fit and reasonable.

(4) If the applicant landlord, village headman, mulraiyyat or raiyyat, as the case may be, tenders to the raiyyat whose land is acquired or other interested persons such sum as the Deputy Commissioner has approved under sub-section (3) as compensation and the latter refuses to receive the same, the Deputy Commissioner may, on the landlord, village headman, mulraiyyat or raiyyat, as the case may be, depositing the said sum with the Deputy Commissioner, give possession of the land to him in the prescribed manner and may execute a lease in the prescribed form in his favour.

(5) The raiyat whose land is so acquired shall be entitled to receive proportionate reduction of rent in addition to compensation.

(6) If the land so acquired is not utilised for the purpose for which it was required within five years of taking possession, the Deputy Commissioner may pass an order restoring the land to the original raiyat or his heirs or to the persons interested on such terms as he thinks fair and reasonable and, on the failure of such persons to take back the land, the Deputy Commissioner may settle the land as if it were village waste land.

CHAPTER VII

JUDICIAL PROCEDURE

54. Power of State Government to make rules regarding procedure.-(1) the ¹[State] Government may make rules prescribing the procedure to be followed by the Court of the Deputy Commissioner and Courts of other officers invested with the powers of the Deputy Commissioner in dealing with applications and other proceedings under this Act and by the courts exercising appellate and revisional jurisdiction in dealing with appeals and revisions and other proceedings arising from such applications in respect of matters for which a procedure is not provided hereby; and may by any such rules direct that any provisions of the Santal Civil Rules shall be followed with or without modifications in dealing with all or any classes of such cases. (2) Until rules are made under sub-section (1) and subject to those rules when made and the other provisions of this Act, the provisions of the Santal Civil Rules shall, far as may be and so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act, be followed in dealing with cases referred to in sub-section (1).

55. Successive suits against raiyat for recovery of rent.- Where a landlord has instituted a suit against a raiyat for the recovery of any rent of his holding, the landlord shall not institute another suit against him for the recovery of any rent of that holding until after six months from the date of the institution of the previous suit.

56. Ejectment.- No person shall be ejected from agricultural land, except by an order of the Deputy Commissioner passed under the provisions of this Act:

Provided that where a raiyat is ejected from his entire holding, the Deputy Commissioner may, in his discretion, permit him to remain in possession of his dwelling house only which may thereupon be assessed to rent if the Deputy Commissioner thinks fit.

57. Appeals.-Except as otherwise provided in this Act, from every order passed under this Act, an appeal shall lie, when the order was made,-

(a) by a Deputy Collector exercising powers of the Deputy Commissioner, to the Sub-divisional officer vested with the powers of the Deputy Commissioner in this behalf:

Provided that the Deputy Commissioner shall have power to order any such appeal to be transferred to his own file or to the file of the Additional Deputy Commissioner empowered in this behalf;

(b) by a sub-divisional Officer exercising powers of the Deputy Commissioner, to the Deputy Commissioner:

Provided that the Deputy Commissioner shall have power to order any such appeal to be transferred to the file of the Additional Deputy Commissioner empowered in this behalf;

(c) by the Deputy Commissioner or the Additional Deputy Commissioner, to the Commissioner;

(d) by the commissioner confirming the order of the Deputy commissioner dismissing a mulraiayat or co-mulraiayat under Section 11 of the Record-of-rights of Mulraiayati village, to a tribunal appointed by the 1[State] Government in this behalf.

58 Second Appeal.- (1) Subject to the provisions of Section 59 with respect to revision, an appellate order shall be final in all cases where the decision of the lower Court is affirmed, and no second appeal shall be allowed except when the Sub-divisional Officer, the Additional Deputy Commissioner has varied the decision of the lower Court, in which case an appeal shall lie,-

(a) When the appellate order was made by a Sub-divisional Officer vested with appellate power, to the Deputy Commissioner:

Provided that the Deputy Commissioner shall have power to order any such appeal to be transferred to the file of the Additional Deputy Commissioner empowered in this behalf;

(b) When the appellate order was made by the Deputy Commissioner or the Additional Deputy Commissioner, to the Commissioner.

(2) No second appeal shall lie from any order passed on appeal by the Commissioner or by the tribunal appointed under clause (d) of Section 57.

59. Revision.-(1) The Commissioner or the Deputy Commissioner may, on his own motion or otherwise, call for the record of a case decided by Court under his control in which an appeal does not lie or in which for cause shown to his satisfaction an appeal has not been preferred within the time limit there for, and may pass such order in the case as he thinks fit:

Provided that the Commissioner shall not pass such order on an application by a party until the Deputy Commissioner or the Additional Deputy Commissioner, as the case may be, has heard the matter in revision or appeal and passed an order.

(2) The Deputy Commissioner may, by order in writing, empower any Sub-divisional Officer under his control to exercise the powers conferred on the Deputy Commissioner by sub-section (1) with respect to the decisions of all or any of the Courts of Deputy Collectors not in charge of a sub-division, under the Control of the Deputy Commissioner.

60. Review.-(1) The Commissioner may, for sufficient reasons to be recorded in writing, review any order which has been passed by himself or a predecessor in exercise of any power conferred by this Act.

(2) An officer subordinate to the Commissioner shall not review any order made by him or by a predecessor, except for the purpose of correcting a clerical error or other error or, manifestly the result of an oversight, without previously obtaining,-

(a) in the case of a Deputy Collector or a Sub-divisional Officer, the permission of the Deputy Commissioner; and

(b) in the case of the Deputy Commissioner or the Additional Deputy Commissioner, the permission of the Commissioner.

61. Order not revisable on technical grounds alone. – An order passed by the Deputy Commissioner in exercise of any of the powers conferred by this Act shall not be reversed or varied on appeal or
