O R D E R

No ground is made out for supplementing the directions already issued by the High Court in the impugned order, more so, when it is stated by Dr. Manish Singhvi, learned counsel appearing for the State, that except for direction (B), all other directions have already been implemented. We may, however, clarify that if the petitioner or the State faces any practical difficulty in giving effect to any of the aforesaid directions, it will be open to them to approach the High Court for appropriate directions/orders.

The special leave petition stands disposed of accordingly.
